Richard Tartre Appointed to Second Term on SDCERA Board of Retirement

SAN DIEGO — The San Diego County Board of Supervisors has voted unanimously to reappoint Richard Tartre to the SDCERA Board of Retirement for a three-year term beginning July 1, 2018. Tartre was first appointed to the Board of Retirement in June 2015.

Tartre is a retired Senior Vice President for Met Life, following more than 35 years in the annuity, life insurance, mutual funds and investment industries. While at MetLife, Mr. Tartre was responsible for all private client activity west of the Mississippi and served as President of the entity responsible for products of not-for-profit institutions. Mr. Tartre is a veteran and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from U.C. Berkeley.

About SDCERA
